Mountain Counties Case Management Programs

Serving Lassen, Modoc, Plumas, Sierra & Siskiyou Counties

DISCUSSION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

Mountain Counties Case Management Programs places a high value on the confidentiality of the information that clients share with us. Absolutely no information about you or your family will be released to any third party without your written consent, or that of your representative appointed in accordance with state law.

All information regarding your physical and mental well-being is discussed only with the staff providing services. Your care may also, under certain circumstances, be discussed with other staff members on an as needed basis to insure that services are consistent and coordinated.

Information may also be used for supervisory purposes, professional writings, and reports for research under strict assurances that all identifying information is deleted.

EXCEPTIONS TO CONFIDENTIALITY

1. We are required to report any threat to do harm to yourself or another person.

2. We are required to report reasonable suspicion of the threat or fact of abuse to a child or the elderly.

Mountain Counties Case Management Programs has a clear commitment to clients to safeguard their confidentiality as completely as the law allows. Every effort is made to handle your concerns in a sensitive, caring and professional manner. If you have any questions or concerns about any of the above, please feel free to ask.

Your signature below indicates that you have read and understand the above explanation of our policy regarding confidentiality.

_____ _____

Signature of client/member or legal representative Date

_____ Chart Number:

Witness